GIVE REASONS WHY THIS CITY IS BEST PLACE TO LIVE

Glendale Residents Provide Plenty of Evidence for Making Their Choice

Why did you come to Glendale?

With the rapid growth of the city outstripping many places of its size, there must be a reason, or several of them, why people come here to live. A representative of The Glendale Evening News put the question to a number of residents whom he met at random and the gist of answers indicate Glendale attracts because it has climate, modern facilities, scenery—because it is a live city, and because it is a clean town kept clean. Here are some of the answers:

George M. Lindsey, 125 West Broadway—I formerly lived in Los Angeles, and then spent a number of years in Detroit. On returning I found that Glendale offered me more advantages than Los Angeles. Glendale has an excellent climate, it has excellent transportation facilities, and is so situated that in a few years should the Pacific Electric build an elevated, this is the logical place. We have all the improvements of the big city, and none of the objectionable features.

In two and a half years in Detroit I handled three million dollars' worth of business, and on returning to California I found that Glendale has everything to offer me for doing a proportionate amount of business. Glendale is a live, hustling place and it is a very desirable place to live. I am now living in Eagle Rock, but believe me, I am going to move here just as soon as I can.

J. A. Newton, 629 East Broadway—We came here because we thought it was a better place to live than Los Angeles. We came here in 1907, fourteen years ago, when the town was just beginning and we have been here ever since. It's a good place to live.

F. H. Reed, 626 East Broadway—Well, I married a native daughter of Glendale, but I don't know as that

People Wearing Masks Invade E. E. Haw Home

Saturday night E. E. Haw of 425 West Wilson avenue was quietly mediating upon the fact that it was his birthday, when Mrs. Haw answered a ring at the door, to find herself confronted with a weird crowd wearing masks and strange costumes. She was a little bit frightened, for they insisted upon entering, although she assured them that they were positively at the wrong house. They circled around Mr. Haw, singing "Happy Birthday" in anything but musical harmoony, and presented him with a huge bouquet.

The surprise was so complete that they could not guess the identity of a single one of their strange visitors. Finally they removed their masks and revealed the faces of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. W. Spickerman and Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Boicourt. They spent a delightful social evening at the close of which Mr. Haw was again surprised by being presented with a beautiful birthday cake, ornamented with twenty-one (?) candles, and all were served to delicious home made ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Haw then surprised the guests by announcing that the day was also their wedding anniversary, and these friends had made this anniversary one that will be very pleasantly remembered.

Naturalist Leaves Upon Long, Interesting Trip

J. Duncanfield Jones, naturalist, of 118 Fairview, left Monday on an interesting journey for the coming year. Accompanied by his son, and daughter-in-law of Los Angeles, they left San Pedro by water, and will go first to Panama, through the canal to Christobal, where they will spend ten days. They will then embark on a vessel from New York, passing through the canal again, and follow the west coast to Valparaiso, Chili. From there they will journey by rail across 800 miles of country to Buenos Ayres, Brazil.

After a short visit there they will proceed to Sao Paulo, where Mr. Jones once spent nineteen years, during which time he saw a small town of 1500 inhabitants grow into a city of 200,000.

In April they will sail for England and spend the summer with a daughter, whose home is at Rose Hill, Dorking, England. Mr. Jones expects to return to Glendale next October.

REHEARSAL TO BE HELD

Past matrons and patrons' night will be observed by Glen Eyrie chapter, O. E. S., at its regular meeting at Masonic Temple Friday evening, October 28.

Wild and Woolly West Never Had Thriller Like One Pictured

Mail bandits rifled, looted, ransacked and robbed a train and shot up Glendale avenue generally this noon in a motion picture thriller which was photographed with, from and on one Salt Lake route branch passenger train.

Hundreds of citizens enjoyed the "disturbed peace" of the community while traffic officers and employes of the film company held motorists at a safe distance.

LOCAL TEAM BEATS ALHAMBRA SQUAD SECOND TIME

Glendale Shows First Battle No Fluke; Fred Terzo Puts Up Wonderful Game

Showing that their victory of several weeks ago was no fluke the tanbark athletes of the Glendale high school yesterday afternoon displayed their superiority over Alhambra high school by defeating that team for the second time this season by the score of 14 to 0. The game which was played over as a result of a C. I. F. ruling involving the eligibility of players on both teams, was staged on the losers' field, about 300 local fans and followers making the trip with the squad.

The contest was marked by the stellar performing of Fred Terzo, substitute quarterback, who was placed in the lineup for Chester Green, who cracked a pair of ribs in the game with South Pasadena last Thursday. Besides making both of Glendale's touchdowns, Terzo showed rare judgment in calling signals, playing more than 100 per cent better brand of football than he has exhibited at any time this year.

No Score First Half

The first half of the game was devoid of scoring, although Coach Hayhurst's lads were dangerously close to their opponents' goal line on several hair-raising occasions in both the first and the second quarters. Glendale's luck seemed to be against her, however, particularly in the middle of the opening period when the Red and Blacks placed the oval on Alhambra's one-yard line through the efforts of Stofft, McCourt and West. On the next play, in which a

J. W. Dutton and Wife Back From Trip North

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dutton of 113 West Los Feliz Road returned to their home here Sunday afternoon after a rainy ride from Tule station No. 4 of the Southern California Edison company in the mountains of Kern county near Springville. They were acompanied by Kingsley Dutton, their son, who returns to the station Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutton spent Thursday and Friday of last week at the grand encampment of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Santa Cruz, the former being past chief patriarch of Orange Grove Encampment No. 31 of Los Angeles. He was the only Glendale member of the order present, it is believed.

Prior to the convention the Duttons visited Watsonville and Monterey and the Old Folks' home at Saratoga and the newly-established orphanage at Gilroy. They also visited a brother, H. F. Dutton, who is a steward on a Sacramento river sugar steamer plying between the bay and Crockett, Calif.

"I can drive a flivver and enjoy its shiver," Mr. Dutton tells his friends, "but I'll never have the failing of wanting any sailing." He spent thirty minutes aboard ship with nothing on his hip and quite against his wishes he nearly fed the fishes.

However, the genial cashier of the Southern California Gas company here, was back on the job yesterday morning.

At the business meeting it was decided that the members would work on aprons for the booth, which will be in charge of the literary section at the bazaar to be given by the club December 7. The next meeting of the section will be held November 14 at the home of Mrs. G. H. Rowe.

PEACE MEETING OF ROAD HEADS AND UNIONS READY

Stage Prepared for Sessions That May Avert Strike Set for October 30

BULLETIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The United States railway labor board this afternoon summoned before it a committee from the Association of American Railway Executives, presumably to discuss plans for the proposed peace conference on the rail strike situation to be held tomorrow.

After a long executive session of the labor board, it was announced the executives had been asked to send a committee to meet with the board at 3 o'clock.

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
Written for International News Service.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Railway executives and rail union chiefs are assembling here today for the most momentous industrial "peace conference" in recent history.

Tomorrow between 1200 and 1400 officials of the railway lines and of the unions will assemble at the Coliseum Annex, with the United States railway labor board as master of ceremonies, and thresh out the controversy that has brought the railroads of the country face to face with a serious strike. The conference, which will begin at 10 o'clock, may end in a few hours or may remain in session several days.

Although the railroad heads and the union leaders will appear in response to an official order from the labor board citing them for violation of the board's recent wage cut decision, the conference in reality is an effort by the labor board to make use of its mediatory powers in an attempt to avert the strike.

Hope to Avert Strike

Members of the board have made it plain that they have strong hopes of reaching an agreement that will settle the strike called for October 30.

Chairman R. M. Barton of the labor board, today served notice on the union leaders that all of the executive officers and general chairmen of the unions involved in the dispute must appear at tomorrow's hearing.

Replying to telegrams received from W. G. Lee of the railway trainmen, W. S. Carter of the firemen and enginemen, and various general chairmen throughout the country, the board stated positively that all those summoned must be present in person.

It had been reported here that some of the brotherhood chiefs had informed the general chairmen that they would not need to come to Chicago.

Executives in Session

The board directed the brotherhood chiefs to withdraw any instructions of this hort.

Executives of most of the big railroad systems of the country met here today in a preliminary council. They were to map out a common plan of procedure at the hearing before the labor board. The heads of the "big four" brotherhoods and the switchmen, it was expected, would come into the meeting with their plans perfected at conferences in Cleveland.

No definite program has been formulated by the labor board, so far as could be learned today. The hearing will be open and the covenants that may result will be "openly arrived at."

Mass Meeting Tonight to Talk School Sites

The importance of tonight's mass meeting at the high school auditorium for the purpose of discussing a new high school site was emphasized this morning by Principal George U. Moyse, who expressed the wish of the high school board of education that the meeting might be well attended in order that it might be a real expression of public opinion.

Dr. Harry V. Brown, president of the high school board of education, is expected to act as temporary chairman and to outline the attitude of the board. The selection of the chairman of the evening will be made by those present.

Preliminary plans for the calling of a bond election probably will be made at this meeting, according to Principal Moyse. He said that two courses were open: Either to decide upon the amount of money to be expended and leave a choice of two possible sites to the voters or concentrate upon a specific site previously.

The report of the Chamber of Commerce site committee will be made public tonight. This recommends a site at Broadway and Verdugo road. It is understood that there is considerable agitation for the selection of a site on the west side.

Mrs. Dutton is survived by two sons, Frank L. Burdick of Wisconsin and C. Rollyn Burdick of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers October 26 at 3 p. m. L. G. Scovern undertaking company is in charge.

WRITTEN FACT UNDERSTOOD BY ONLY TWO PER CENT, SAYS EDISON

Possibilities of Developing Human Brain Almost Infinite if Education is Interesting, Great Inventor Concludes in Interview

By ALLAN L. BENSON
Written for International News Service
Copyright 1921 by International News Service

ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 25—"Neither you nor anybody else," said Thomas A. Edison to me today, "can write a self-evident fact so plainly that three per cent of those who read it can understand it. On second thought, I think I would reduce the number who can understand to two per cent."

At my first question he plunged into the interview with all of the remarkable vigor that he puts into his work.

Thomas A. Edison has been going to school lately. His instructors are those who apply to him for employment. By studying their answers to his famous questionnaire, he is learning new things about the human race. Some of the things he learned saddened him. The answers to one question in his latest questionnaire he will not publicly discuss because they constitute an indictment of a large percentage of those applying to him for employment.

Takes 25 Years To Mold Law

"You write an article," continued Mr. Edison, "and write it as plainly as you can and think people understand you. You are wrong. Only two per cent can understand, because only two per cent have sufficient imagination. That is why it takes so long to get any kind of needed legislation in this country. It takes twenty-five or thirty years to put anything over. If the people of the United States had imagination, they could understand a thing the first time they were told and be ready to act at once."

"If only two per cent can understand," Mr. Edison was asked, "what chance is there for self-government?"

"Not a chance on earth," he replied. "We have no self-government. We have government by a little group of men, most of whom are lawyers."

Edison was asked if human intellect had gained anything in power since the days of the Greek philosophers.

"I think it has gained a good deal in power," he replied.

The fact that each generation produces two per cent who are able to understand a self-evident fact when plainly stated, seemed to indicate that there were laws in operation that inexorably produced the two per cent. Mr. Edison was asked if he did not consider that the two per cent were created by the fortuitous operation of natural laws and he said he did. He was then asked if he believed it might be possible to describe the laws that create superior beings and consciously go about it to accelerate the speed at which humanity is intellectually improved.

"The possibility already exists in theory," re replied, "and it will exist in fact as soon as we learn more about the laws that produce brain power. At present we know very little about these laws. It is all a matter of association. I mean by that it is a matter of the association of the little fellows inside of us that contain whatever intellect we possess. We are made of cells and some, but not all of these cells, manifest whatever intelligence we possess. Some parents happen to be suited to each other and their product has exceptional brain power. It is just like two men going into partnership."

Child Mind Atrophies

"The important thing," he said, "is not to make young children study things they don't like. The moment school is not play it is an injury. I do not know quite the age at which a child's mind atrophies, but it is somewhere between the ages of 11 and 14. Make a child study what i; does not like and keep this up until it is 14 years old and its brain is impaired forever.

"The kindergarten is the place to begin. Children like to learn if they are taught right. They have great curiosity. But they want to be interested. Our educational methods do not interest them. Change these methods and many more 'freaks' will be produced."

Mr. Edison stopped, as he often does during an interview and remained silent almost a minute. Then he looked up and said:

"The possibilities for the development of the human brain are almost infinite. Think of that boy, 12 years old, who can play 25 games of chess at once and beat the best experts in the world. He is a prodigy, of course, but the prodigy only shows what we are all made of if we can only release our potentialities."

(To be continued tomorrow, when Mr. Edison will discuss "The increasing complexity of human life as a menace to civilization.")

'BOB' LINDSEY WINS SECOND PRIZE IN RADIO CONTEST

Local Lad Gets Honors for Construction of Compact Wireless Sending Set

"Six-X-L" is the wireless call for "Bob" Lindsey, 1017 East Palmer street, a senior at the Glendale Union high school.

Second prize in the Southern California Radio club's contest for the construction of a compact home-made wireless sending set was awarded to him last night at the bi-monthly meeting of the organization in the Walker auditorium, Los Angeles, which was attended by amateur wireless wizards for miles around.

His entry consisted of a small tuner of the loose-coupler type with a range of from 200 to 600 meters, the materials for which had cost less than a couple of dollars, and one phone which he had taken from a set previously used by him for experimental purposes. The contest specifications required that the sets entered should not occupy more space than 6x3½x1¾ inches.

Long Distance Work

First prize in the contest went to an amateur in Los Angeles, who, it is reported, has been manufacturing wireless apparatus for sale.

The first prize was a crystal receiving set and a phone which can be easily adjusted. The second prize was $5.

The receiving radius of "Bob" Lindsey's set, which receives its sound waves via the top of a sixty-foot eucalyptus tree in the back yard, includes Seattle, Idaho and New Mexico.

In the near future he expects to construct a continuous wave sending set. Each day he is able to hear many stations in California.

There are at least fifty receiving sets in Glendale according to young Lindsey, but only about ten licensed amateur operators.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS GIVE THANKS FOR POSTAL VICTORY

Express Appreciation of Fine Work by Committee; More New Members Secured

Report of the postoffice committee informing the Chamber of Commerce of its victory in obtaining independent service and a postmaster for Glendale featured the board of directors' meeting this afternoon. The following resolution was adopted thanking the committee headed by Dr. Henry R. Harrower for its work:

"Whereas, Glendale the fastest growing city in all America, composed of approximately 30,000—100 per cent red-blooded American citizens, proud of their flag, proud of their country and proud of the lofty position in which they are held before the eyes of the world for their independence, courage and loyalty—a fighting people when oppressed—a courageous people when faced with danger—a forgiving, repentant and religious people when faced by Deity, and

"Whereas, a citizenship composed of this class of people have been struggling for the past ten or more years trying to break the bondage and oppression of a greater power, divesting them of their independence and individuality due and accorded them by the constitution of the nation under which they live, in keeping them from an independent, separate and regularly established government postoffice, and

"Whereas, this battle has now been won by the leadership of our generals who have so ably carried this struggle to victory and obtained for this city and her people the individuality and independence they have so long looked forward to that they might enjoy that which every other city town, village and hamlet enjoys in this nation—that of an independent postoffice.

"Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Board of Directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce that a vote of profound gratitude and thanks be extended to Dr. Henry R. Harrower, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Postoffice committee, and his splendid committee, consisting of A. T. Cowan, Glenn Ely, A. R. Eastman, James Howarth and T. D. Watson, for their great and effective services rendered and assisting in obtaining the long-hoped for and looked-for independent postoffice. That the same be also extended to the Honorable W. F. Lineberger, Congressman from this district, Attorney W. E. Evans, who made a trip to Washington and carried the signatures to the Postmaster-General of more than 2,000 of our citizens—the newspapers which at all times were more than generous in giving publicity to this cause—Frank A. Harrison of Lincoln, Nebraska, a friend of this city who used his every influence—and all others who assisted in the greatest step forward Glendale has ever taken. May we extend thanks to all and rejoice.

"Be It Further Resolved, that this committee be continued through the installation of the said postoffice.

"Be It Further Resolved, that we voice our approval of the appointment of Captain Jackson as our first postmaster and extend to him our confidence in his integrity and ability to perform the task assigned him, further, that we extend to Captain Jackson our offer of every assistance we can render him in the performance of his duties.

"Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, a copy sent to Dr. Henry Harrower and each of his committeemen, and copies to the newspapers of this city, a copy to Mr.

GIVE REASONS WHY THIS CITY IS BEST PLACE TO LIVE

is the only reason. We went east and stayed sixteen months so that Mrs. Reed might experience an eastern winter. It didn't snow much that winter, but we both thought we had all the winter we wanted anyhow. So we came back to Glendale to live, and we both like it better every day. It is a wonderful place; I never saw a city I like as well. I have purchased a lot at the corner of Granada and Chestnut streets, and we are going to live there as soon as I can get a house moved.

A. B. Kerr, 300 South Brand boulevard—Because I think it is one of the most desirable places to live. Of course I am not so enthused over the climate we had last Sunday, but those kind of days are very rare and it makes us appreciate the sunshine all the more. I like the city of Glendale as a place to live.

Gilbert Fay, 3807 Revere avenue—Why did I come to South Glendale? Well, I have spent much time in traveling in the United States and I have visited every state west of the Mississippi river, and I must say that of all the places I have seen I prefer Glendale. Property is beautifully situated in Glendale, there is plenty of beautiful scenery, the streets have modern improvements, and the climate is always wonderful. I think it is the best place I have ever seen to live.

Of course, if I were a stranger coming here to locate, I would say that all of this I have said is a real estate yarn. In face I had my doubts when I first came here. But I built here and I have found Glendale as wonderful as I had been told. The winters are warm and during the summer we have a cool breeze from the ocean. It's the place to live.

Andy Williams, 136½ North Brand boulevard—Because it is the best place I ever saw. When I don't like a place, I move, and you notice I'm staying here. There are plenty of ways to get out, railroads, street cars, bus lines, steamships, but you don't see any one leaving do you? It's because Glendale's got any other town beat.

And that's that.

By the way, how did YOU happen to come to Glendale? Write out your reasons briefly and mail to The Glendale Evening News.

First Entertainment by Athletic Club to Be Given Next Week

Planning the first program of entertainment for its members and their guests at the next regular meeting night, the final adoption of a constitution and a set of by-laws, reports of progress by committees arranging a dance and entertainment to be given next month, and a social hour, were features of the regular meeting of the Glendale Athletic club held at 111 East Broadway last night.

The program of entertainment for the members and guests has been under consideration for some time and it was decided last night that the first event of its kind for the club should be held at 111 East Broadway next Monday night. At that time the committee in charge composed of Rex Randall, Walter Dodge, Frank Stanley and M. E. Glenn, will have a program consisting of boxing and wrestling bouts, bag punching exhibitions, music, comedians and plenty of eats. Rex Randall gave the meeting last night the assurance there would be plenty of hot-dogs and coffee for the gathering. Walter Dodge, who is now in training for several boxing bouts to be staged Armistice Week, will appear on the program next Monday night in a boxing exhibit in which he will be matched with a dark horse, the announcement of whose name will create a surprise, stated Chairman L. E. Thompson. Mr. Dodge will also give exhibitions of shadow boxing and jump the rope a few times to show the crowd how he does his preliminary training.

Chairman L. E. Thompson stated last night that the hall at 111 East Broadway could be secured for the event. Members of the club will bring as many guests as they choose to enjoy the evening and the committee in charge of the entertainment and refreshments stated that it expected to provide for seventy-five or a hundred guests.

In the routine business of the evening much unfinished business was attended to which now puts the organization on a sound basis. Several new members were present last night to enjoy the social hour which followed the conclusion of the business of the evening.

You Are Invited to Visit Local Laundry; It Is Visiting Week

This is visitors' week at laundries everywhere and the Glendale Laundry, at the corner of Arden and Columbus avenues, is extending the invitation to everyone in Glendale to pay a visit to the establishment for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with the firm, its modern equipment and the courteous and efficient manner in which it does business.

The laundry has many efficient features which it wishes to have the public know more about, among them being a clean, well-ventilated, many-windowed establishment, thorough in service, and sanitary and pleasing.

The invitation to visit is extended to everyone in Glendale during all this week. Yesterday many callers were shown through the establishment, stated W. E. Hewitt, who said he expected many hundreds to call during the week.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally if You Eat Meat Regularly

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

Mirth and Music on Vaudeville Program at Glendale Today

There is a liberal offering of wholesome mirth on the program at the Glendale Theatre today together with two talented musical offerings. A particularly artistic rendition will be given by Dan Cervo & Co., using the violin, accordeon and guitar. Mr. Cervo is credited with being the greatest of all accordeonists.

Gilbert and Brammick as "The Professor and the Pupil," blend some pleasing comedy with violin renditions. And for the comedy there is plenty of it in the ventriloqual work of Leon Toone and singing is ably supplied by that well known artist, J. Aldridge Libbey. Such a diversified program is sure to please.

"Maid of the West," a romantic tale in which the charming Eileen Percy is featured furnishes the film half of the double program at regular prices.

Paul Carson's accompaniment of both the pictures and variety numbers is winning friends for the Glendale Theatre. Beginning tomorrow afternoon the Sonora Grand Opera company stars will be heard in special programs.

One Look at Pretty Verdugo Woodlands and Sale Made; Office for Glendale

Illustrating the rapidity with which people from other states are "adopted" by southern California, W. L. Twining, general manager of the F. P. Newport company, subdividers of Verdugo Woodlands here, tells of H. Armour who "landed" in Los Angeles from Pueblo, Colo., last week.

Mr. Armour and his family motored in from the flood-swept Colorado city and "put up" at the municipal camp grounds in Elysian park. In a newspaper they saw Verdugo Woodlands advertised and the next day they investigated. "Sold" was written on a beautiful site that night and today the builders are busy.

Mrs. Clara Bates of Riverside is going to have a five-room home built for her at once in Rustice Lane near the historic Verdugo Road while C. W. Swift is building a six-room house in Woodland lane.

Leases C. of C. Room

It was announced by Mr. Twining this morning that the F. P. Newport company has taken over the lease on the present Chamber of Commerce quarters and will open offices at 115 West Broadway as soon as the Citizens' Building will permit Secretary James M. Rhoades and his assistants to move into the spacious second floor front rooms.

Verdugo Woodlands tracts will be handled exclusively by the local office of the Newport company, which has commodious quarters on the second floor of the Central building in Los Angeles.

"We are going to see to it that everybody in Glendale knows about the beautiful foothill section adjacent to Canada boulevard," said Mr. Twining. Thousands of our beautiful illustrated booklets will be put out here in order that local people may better appreciate what this city has in the way of home sites comparable to anything in Hollywood or elsewhere in southern California.

"Today we are advertising in the classified columns of The Glendale Evening News for a real manager to take charge of this downtown office here. It is a great opportunity for an experienced man."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25. — Railroad officials took their first step locally to meet the impending nationwide strike when the Southern Pacific offices notified shippers' freight would be accepted "subject to loss, damage or delay" on account of the threatened strike.

It was expected the freight department of other railroads here would receive similar instructions within a short time. Railroad men said the "subject to delay" orders were issued merely as a precautionary measure.

DON'T HIRE WOMAN FOR CREDIT HEAD, WARNS EXPERT

Experienced Man Necessary to Direct Mercantile Project, Claim, by Man, of Course

"Do not hire a woman as secretary of the Glendale Merchants' Credit association. I have never seen one succeed as head of a mercantile agency."

This statement was made to the business men Thursday night by J. H. Vandewater, secretary of the Los Angeles association, in telling his experience in the work and impressing the necessity for the early organization along similar lines here.

"You cannot talk to a man about his wife or his pocketbook without making him mad unless you have an experienced man to handle it."

Three Big Points

In outlining the accomplishments of a credit association, Mr. Vandewater brought out three points for the merchants' consideration:

"The first operation is to protect you against a loss. Such an agency protects you against pyramiding of accounts.

"I could move into your city and stay with you four months and clean you merchants for $4,000 worth of goods if you did not have a ledger report on my credit accounts.

"The next step is to build up business. Ninety per cent of the wholesale business is done on credit; 60 per cent of retail sales are on credit. America has grown to be the greatest "buying" nation on earth because of its short term credits.

Where to Market

"When 40 per cent of a store's business is done on credit it will know how to send its buyers to market. They know exactly where they are going to place a large share of the goods ordered months in advance.

"The third angle of this work is the quick turnover of your money. If you are staggering along or overloaded with debts, you can turn your money. In Los Angeles is to be found this result of the operation of a credit association.

"The average outstanding accounts in our association range between forty-seven to fifty days. In San Francisco the average is eighty-two and one-half days and the business men there are scared stiff. They have their capital tied up just twice as long as the Los Angeles merchants.

To Act as Unit

"In Peoria, Ill., they get 32 per cent of their accounts paid within thirty days. In Los Angeles when they fall below 55 per cent the first month they are alarmed and most of the merchants report they are getting in 60 to 65 per cent of their money shortly after the customers receive bills.

"Your association will enable you to act as a unit through an organization which is as necessary as the clearing house is to a bank. With such an institution you can protect yourselves against losses. It controls your buying. And it quickens your turnover.

"My advice to you is to organize at once."

Leaping Over Walls Subject of Sermon by Rev. Calderwood

"Leaping Over Walls," was the subject of Rev. C. M. Calderwood's sermon at the Congregational church Sunday morning during the course of which he said:

"Not a year goes by without a crowning achievement of man. Man does not always succeed in leaping over walls and in running through troops but, when he does, it is with the help of God. We have four walls in our way in science, medicine, government and religion. Obstacles and difficulties confronted us. With the help of God and his divine laws we leaped over the walls.

"The walls are in our way in order that we may learn to go to God for help. If we could do all things in our own strength and with our own wisdom, we might forget God. We need to be made acquainted with a higher power. After we have leaped a wall with the help of God, we know God's laws better and we know God better.

"Christian people must expect difficulties. Life is a ceaseless struggle. There are always foes and walls. We have to fight sins, difficulties to maintain our habits and to keep from drifting.

"There are great tasks ahead of us. The kingdom of God is not yet established. There are international, national and industrial problems that are not settled. Peace and harmony do not reign. The church of God is not perfect. We are responsible for the physical, moral and religious welfare of millions of people.

Our conquest is to be in the realm of the spirit. The difficulties will be overcome not by brute force, but by spiritual power.

"We need the help of God right here. He wants to help us but we must call upon Him. We can leap these walls of difficulties and we can solve these problems only with the help of God. Get in harmony with God and you are working with the universe. All of God's laws then will be working in your behalf."

ONE INJURED; ONE IS FINED

J. J. Simmons of Los Angeles is in the Glendale Research Hospital recovering from painful injuries sustained in an auto accident just over the line in Los Angeles while A. J. Patterson who was motoring with him received a $10 fine in Police Judge F. H. Lowe's court.

BUT IS IT HARD LUCK?

G. E. Stull, 1420 South San Fernando road, is having hard luck. His wife admits it. She says that every time he gets in a stock of second hand furniture, somebody comes right in and buys it so that he can't keep anything in the store at all. His establishment happens to be the only second hand furniture store in Southern Glendale.

Heavy Profit Shown in Southern Glendale Property, Is Report

Fifty-two thousand dollars profit in less than six months is the return on the triangular block of lots bounded by Brand boulevard, Cerritos road and San Fernando road, according to E. T. Jenney, representative of W. A. Heitman.

Only two lots of this tract are now left on Brand boulevard and Mr. Jenney stated yesterday that he expected to sell these at once. Four lots of various sizes remain unsold on Cerritos road, but it is understood that a bungalow court will be erected there in the future.

Last spring this block was bought for $24,000. Title to it was secured the first part of July and it was immediately subdivided into thirty-four lots and put on the market. The corner lot, 172 feet on Brand boulevard by 156 feet on San Fernando road, recently brought $20,000. A store building will be constructed there before Christmas.

QUICK SERVICE ASSURED

Quicker gasoline filling service can be given with the air controlled pumps at the new oil and gas supply depot at the northeast corner of San Fernando road and Central avenue, according to E. H. Jackson, who is associated in the venture with his brother, B. G. Jackson.

"To get fifteen or twenty gallons with the old-fashioned pumps with cranks a man had to work his head off," said Mr. Jackson. "With the new ones all a person has to do is to turn the little lever on the side and it pours right out."

C. S. JORDAN KEPT BUSY

"We have been kept mighty busy for the past six months and much busier than at this time last year," stated C. S. Jordan of the Glendale Sash and Door House, 1422 South San Fernando road, yesterday afternoon. "I have lived around Los Angeles for the past twenty years and I never have seen anything like the building now going on. I sure have my hands full."

NEW RESIDENCE GOING UP

The new six-room residence being built at 1515 South Brand boulevard for A. Carlson by May and Hellman is now about two-thirds finished It is of white plaster in Spanish style.

'The Man Who' Is Picture Feature at T. D. & L. Theatre

"The Man Who," by Lloyd Osborne, has been made into a motion picture by Arthur Zellner and will be presented at the T. D. & L. Theatre today only. Bert Lytell has the role of Beddy Mills, the New York bank clerk who tried to become the Man Who Broke the Shoe Trust.

Beddy's ambition to become a Man Who is inspired by his desire to win the favor of Helen Jessop, daughter of an old New York family, who has no use for men who were just "nice and ordinary." So Beddy decides to go about faultlessly dressed, except that his feet are always bare as a protest against the high price of shoes which inspires a national barefoot campaign.

Today is benefit day for the Broadway school, proceeds to purchase new equipment for the playground. "The Toonerville Follies" and other attractions are also on the program.

Norma Talmadge, supported by Lew Cody and Charles Richman in "The Sign on the Door," comes tomorrow.

News Notes About People in Southern Glendale You Know

Did someone say that people in Southern Glendale were on the move?

George E. Schram, 1500 South San Fernando road has a new automobile, according to report.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Satow were in Sawtelle Sunday visiting Mrs. Satow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Heuerman.

Miss Ella Baldwin of the B. and R. Millinery, 1517 South San Fernando road, has returned to South Glendale, after a few days in Monrovia where she visited Mrs. Frank Dupor.

"Service—and then some " is the motto of A. F. Barrett, who is opening a new gasoline and oil supply "coop" on the northeast corner of Cerritos road and San Fernando road known as the Triangle Service Station. Until recently Mr. Barrett has been operating a filling station at 3301 North Main street, Los Angeles. He is now living at 319 El Bonita.

Hope Yet Remains for Irish Peace, Is Present Indication

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Sinn Fein may yet be prepared for a retreat from their demand for Irish independence and their repudiation of King George. Reiteration of the demand for independence in DeValeras' note to the Pope brought the negotiations to the verge of disaster on Friday, but there were indications today that the parley may maneuver around this obstacle this week.

The Sinn Feiners propose to stand pat against Irish sovereignty until they obtain their price for this concession.

The International News Service understands that Arthur Griffith, head of the Irish delegation, will state this proposition to Premier Lloyd George today, pointing out that the Sinn Fein cannot be expected to retreat from its position while Britain yields nothing in exchange. Griffith will reveal that Ireland's price for the concession on Ulster is as follows:

The British agree to a four county parliament for Ulster, subsidiary to the All-Irish parliament or Central Legislature at Dublin. The Sinn Feiners said they were ready to give guarantees that the rights of the minority in the Dublin parliament would be protected.

Locomotive Crashes Into House; None Are Injured

Crash, smash and kindling wood. A locomotive on the Glendale line of the Salt Lake and Los Angeles branch of the Union Pacific railroad ran into a house here at Glendale avenue and Harvard street yesterday afternoon.

Indeed, it was a catastrophe, but not the kind you think. The bungalow had been built on wheels and purposely dragged in front of the oncoming engine for film purposes only.

The script of a Larry Semon comedy for Vitagraph called for the demolition of one perfectly good house. For three days carpenters and "prop" men have been plotting and planning the thrilling scene to a nicety in detail.

Everything went lovely, it is said. Not a person was hurt. The photographers "shot" their scene and some day Glendale people will be laughing at the incident in which Larry proves a hero and the heroine falls into his arms in a fade out of fun.

CHAPTER L WILL MEET

Chapter L, P. E. O., will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Russell, 332 North Kenwood street.

PUT AND TAKE IN BAD

DENVER—The popular indoor sport "put and take" is in bad with the district attorney's office. Hereafter players of the game will "put" a fine and maybe "take" a jail sentence if caught.

Out of suffering comes the serious mind; out of salvation the grateful heart; out of endurance fortitude; out of deliverance faith.

Recovering petroleum that has become mixed with water in the wells by means of a device similar to a cream separator will save millions of dollars annually, according to an American scientist. The machine is being used with success in oil fields of the middle west. Its speed is 17,000 revolutions a minute, breaking up the emulsions into clear oil and salt water, which are then drained off through spouts.

LOCAL TEAM BEATS ALHAMBRA SQUAD SECOND TIME

Glendale back bucked over the line, the locals were penalized fifteen yards, where they lost the ball on an attempted forward pass.

Glendale kicked off to open the last half of the game, Jones of Alhambra, receiving on his own thirty-yard line, and advancing the ball ten yards. After two unsuccessful attempts to penetrate Glendale's stone-wall defense Captain Geer of the Blue and Gold punted to Glendale's twenty-five-yard line.

Makes Long Run

Then followed the prettiest run of the day—a seventy-five-yard sprint by Terzo to a touchdown, with the entire Alhambra team vainly attempting to head him off. The rejuvenated Terzo was materially aided in his spectacular dash by perfect interference by his teammates, particularly Stofft and McCourt, who succeeded in mowing down the opposition's second line of defense.

The second and final score of the day was made a few moments before the whistle blew in the last quarter when Terzo caught the whole Alhambra team by surprise and broke straight through center for a fifteen yard gain to the goal line.

Fred Stofft, star halfback, who has recently been favorably mentioned in several Los Angeles newspapers, was removed from the game in the third quarter as the result of a wrenched ankle. The injury was only a slight one, however, and he will be able to start in Friday's contest with Citrus. Cecil "Bullet" Wilson, regular left end, took Stofft's place in the backfield, where he made a very creditable showing during the remainder of the game.

Their Work Is Good

Although the players on the forward defense are rarely ever given any mention their work in yesterday's contest was beyond reproach, their efforts being largely responsible for keeping Alhambra from scoring. As usual Captain Dutcher at right tackle was the mainstay of the line, his work at interference being particularly noticeable. The spirits of the Glendale rooters were given a sudden boost in the last half when "Russ" Eiffler and T-Bone Fraley got into the game for the first time since the opening week of the season. These two huskies, who are the heaviest men on the squad, will add much needed strength to the line in the remaining contests this season.

Following is the lineup:

Restoring Black Walnuts
Frivolity of Parisians
Edison on Understanding
Mirror of Other Minds

By Gil A. Cowan

OLDER residents from the middle west will recall the tales told of Appleseed Johnny who wandered about the country planting the orchards which today are bearing still for the people of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky.

The fruits of this one man's labor have been enjoyed by thousands. Today a similar effort is being made to restore the black walnut. According to a recent number of the American Forestry Magazine, 150 bushels of seed were planted at Mont Alto, Pa., and next spring it is expected there will be 100,000 seedlings available.

It is the everlasting planting of seeds that brings the crops of tomorrow. In Russia the peasants stopped their work in the fields to fight and today they are starving or dependent upon American relief. The Indians of America did not believe in raising their own food crops and today they are practically extinct.

And today the people of the United States are getting away from the farms when with a rising tide of population they should get to work producing food. To the cultivator of the soil first credit must be given.

The frivolity of the Parisians greatly impressed Mrs. W. K. Parkinson, of this city, who visited Europe recently. Much of the work which before the war was done by men now is being done by women, she says, and other than filling the trenches and planting crops little has been done in the way of improvements.

What a disturbing effect the intoxication of war has on "the morning after." It is a "hang over" that the learned diplomats coming to the Armament Limitation Conference in Washington should consider like a clinic and decide upon some remedy.

War is horrible enough while it lasts, but the real heart throbs come in the tragic aftermath. True, amid ruins the Parisians laugh and make merry and try to forget, but the ruins remain for years and decades, yea even centuries.

May the statesmen forget frivolity on their important errand here and the nations of the world be brought together for the banishment of further wars, at least until fathers of this generation are long forgot and the world a much worse, less enlightening place in which to live.

Once more Thomas Edison comes to the front with a characteristically surprising interview.

"Neither you nor anyone else can write a self-evident fact so plainly that 3 per cent of those who read it can understand it."

That is his statement to an International News Service correspondent in a copyrighted article.

Believe it or not, Mr. Edison goes further and declares that he thinks only 2 per cent understand what is written. By this he means that only two out of every hundred people can read understandingly.

And, while apparently it is a conclusion falsely arrived at, there is no question as to its truth. The trained reader will pore over a simple statement two and three times before sensing its full meaning.

You will want to read Mr. Edison's article five or six times if it is to be understood the way he means it.

Yesterday you read how people seemingly never grow old in Glendale. Today you have an article on "Why We Live in Glendale." These views of other people are interesting to humankind. They are like the person in the play whose place you take. We get acquainted with ourselves through the mirror of other minds.

FILM LIBRARY IS PLANNED

Fulfillment of a long-felt need in the motion-picture world was indicated in the announcement of the organization of the Hollywood Library association, a $500,000 corporation, which will erect in the heart of the industry a library which will be devoted entirely to works pertaining to all phases of the art.

J. K. GILKERSON IN STATEMENT ABOUT SITE OF SCHOOL

Expresses His Views Relative to Location of New High School as Planned

Editor The Evening News: Having read the letter of Mr. Hayward in your issue of Saturday, regarding location of high school site, and been greatly impressed with the points raised therein in favor of its location on the west of town, as a resident of the east side I wish to express my views as a matter of fairness to the rapidly growing section to the west and northwest.

It has been claimed that "the site recommended on the east side locates the school in the center district, which is probably correct, but we must remember that the district has been already extended taking in a large part of the Burbank school district on the west and is even at this moment planned to annex an additional larger part of the Burbank district, so that the natural trend of population has materially changed to the northwest placing the center, if present development continues, at about Doran and Kenilworth.

When the district was first laid out, the city limits were about a quarter of a mile west of the present school site; today the westerly city limits are over three miles distant and the bulk of population has moved west and north west, while the easterly city boundary has remained stationary of necessity; and because of topographical conditions must remain as at present.

If the present high school were properly located in the center of the district, why is it necessary to move it one mile east to still be in the center, when the center of population has moved one mile west of the present high school and both the city limits of Glendale and the school district have moved three miles west?

The cheapest and nearest possible site to the geographical center is the one on the west side. It also takes the children out of the business district away from the temptation to trifle away their nickels for chewing gum and cigarettes and will save the parents thousands of dollars annually as well as getting the children into a cleaner, cooler atmosphere, out in plain view of the green Verdugo hills.

Children That Walk

If the school is placed on Verdugo road it is on the extreme east of the main population of Glendale, only about 150 children coming now from Eagle Rock, La Crescenta, etc., and about 1000 or over coming from Glendale proper.

Placed on the east side our children will all have to walk against the sun to school and against the sun again going home.

Physiologists affirm and it is a demonstrable fact that a person will walk fully half as far again with the sun than against it and with less fatigue.

The children of Eagle Rock and La Crescenta will be obliged to ride anyhow, why, then force 90 per cent of the high school students to walk against the sun both going and coming in order that the Eagle Rock students may ride a few blocks less?

Again the site at Eagle Rock is 10 degrees warmer than out on the cool, open, west side.

Children That Ride

The Pacific Electric along Brand boulevard bisects Glendale both as to distance and population, it returns with empties in the morning from Los Angeles at convenient time for the children going to school so that there would be seats and service for all. Like conditions apply in the afternoon, cars going back to Los Angeles empty to get people returning in the evening. This would enable the Pacific Electric company to make a cheap student rate and get additional patronage, and would serve the majority of students with only a few blocks to walk on either side, no bother and no delay in transfer, and would also save mothers at least fifteen to thirty minutes' time each morning, besides cutting out the risks at transfer points.

In addition, the high school placed on the west side will in a measure help to balance up the present lopsided condition relative to civic improvements, as at present all public improvements are on the east of Brand and the taxpayers and residents on the west side are certainly entitled to some consideration. As one desiring only to see the high school placed where it will best serve the children of our city, I appreciate your courtesy in according this space to explain in part my views on this matter.

Yours very truly,
J. K. GILKERSON,
322 N. Kenwood.

W. R. Vanderwood Says September Best Month

W. R. Vanderwood, manager of the Fox-Woodsum Lumber company at 714 East California, reports that the month of September was the biggest in the history of their business and that so far October is breaking all records. This is to be suspected by the casual observer in view of the large amount of construction work under way.

Bulbs From Holland Are Being Offered to Glendale People

"Holland is the home of fine bulbs and all fancy tulips, narcissus and hyacinths are grown from imported bulbs," said R. E. Downing at the nursery of Downing & Cox, 118 South Brand boulevard, this morning. "They make much handsomer flowers than the local grown bulbs. There is something in the way of growing them over there—either the soil or the climatic conditions—that we have not, that we can't compete with the Dutch bulbs.

"Consequently, every year there is a big importation of bulbs from Holland. A shipload recently arrived in Los Angeles harbor and is being distributed to the different florists and nurseries in this vicinity. I don't know just how many shiploads of bulbs are exported from Holland each season, but the raising of them is one of the principal industries of the country."

Hidden within the folds of onion-like bulbs now reposing indifferently in earthenware jars at the Downing & Cox nursery are large hyacinths of light and dark pink, blue and white; miniature Roman hyacinths of blue, pink and white; tulips of yellow, pink, rose and red; and narcissus or daffodils of white, yellow and white with a citron cup. A new creation of blood red has been named General Joffre.

These bulbs should be planted between now and Christmas in order to flower next spring, between March and June.

"We could get bulbs much cheaper in this country," remarked Mr. Downing, "but we want to sell the best and those that we know will grow."
